 THE BOOK OF KOLI: The Rampart Trilogy, Book 1 by M.R. Carey

Contemporary Fiction | Orbit | 400pp | april 2020 | Korea: Duran Kim | Japan: Japan Uni

This is the tale of Koli – a young man who lives in the village of Mythen Rood. This is a future Britain, but one which is barely recognisable now.

Things have been very different since environmental disaster wreaked havoc on nature, and since the Unfinished War caused a complete societal breakdown and brought humanity close to extinction...For one thing, the villagers are practically held prisoner within their settlement walls, because if you risk stepping into the vastly overgrown forests that surround them whilst the sun is out, the choker trees will crush you in their midst - that's if one of their deadly seeds doesn't land on you first and burrow into your skin. And that's not even to mention the shunned men . . .

If you fall into their hands, you'll never be seen again. Rumour has it that they'll skin you alive and eat what's left. But Koli and his village feel safe and protected due to one thing: The Ramparts, those key four people who defend the village using the special tech of the Old Times. These Ramparts are the chosen ones: the only ones for whom the technology has "woken", and the only ones who can wield the power of these weapons. And they are the elite of the village, living the life of privilege that their honoured status earns them. Koli is coming to the age where he - like all those his age - will take the test to see if he is destined to be a Rampart, a sacred protector of the village. But when Koli discovers a corruption in the testing ceremony, and at the heart of the whole village, he will fight back. But the consequences of his actions will be far greater than he could have imagined.

Praise for THE GIRL WITH ALL THE GIFTS: As fresh as it is terrifying . . . It left me sighing with envious joy – Joss Whedon; Original, thrilling and powerful – The Guardian; Haunting, heart-breaking – Vogue.

M.R. CAREY'S novel THE GIRL WITH ALL THE GIFTS sold over a million copies and was turned into a major film in 2016 starring Glenn Close and Gemma Arterton. Under the name Mike Carey he has written for both DC and Marvel, including critically acclaimed runs on X-Men and Fantastic Four, Marvel's flagship superhero titles.

THE UNDOING OF ARLO KNOTT by Heather Child

Contemporary Fiction | Orbit | 464pp | August 2019 | Korea: KCC | Japan:

Mainstream crossover fiction from the author of EVERYTHING ABOUT YOU

What if your life had an 'undo' button? Arlo Knott discovers he can rewind time - just by a minute or two - enough to undo any mistake, say the right thing or impress his friends with his uncanny predictions... But second chances aren't all they're cracked up to be. As wonderful as his new life is, a mistake in Arlo's traumatic childhood still haunts him and the temptation to undo, undo and keep undoing is too much to resist.

HEATHER CHILD has an MA in Writing from the University of Warwick. She worked with writers including Maureen Freely, Rebecca Abrams and China Miéville. Her work has appeared in a range of literary magazines including Mslexia, the Storgy 2014 Short Story Anthology and Notes from the Underground online. Option publishers: Russian (Eksmo).

* INHERITANCE by Jenny Eclair

Contemporary Fiction | Sphere | 400pp | August 2019 | Korea: KCC | Japan:

From Sunday Times Top Ten bestseller Jenny Eclair, INHERITANCE is her heart-breaking new novel

In deepest Cornwall, the mansion Kittiwake has seen many pass through its doors since it was bought by American heiress Peggy Carmichael seventy years ago. Over the decades, the keys have been handed down through the family, and now it belongs to Bel's adoptive brother, Lance. It's where he'll be celebrating his 50th birthday, and Bel is invited. But in going back to Kittiwake, Bel will be returning to the place where it all began - where, following the death of a child, a sequence of events was set in motion years ago, the consequences of which are still rippling down through the generations.

JENNY ECLAIR is the author of four critically acclaimed novels: CAMBERWELL BEAUTY; HAVING A LOVELY TIME; LIFE, DEATH AND VANILLA SLICES and MOVING. One of the UK's most popular writer/performers, she was the first woman to win the prestigious Perrier Award and has many TV and radio credits to her name. She lives in South-East London. Option publishers: German (Bastei Leubbe AG), Norwegian (Cappelen Damm A/S), Italian (Sperling and Kupfer Editori) Polish (Grupa Wydawnicza Foksal sp. z o.o), Turkish (Altin Kitaplar).

WIFE AFTER WIFE by Olivia Hayfield

Contemporary Fiction | Piatkus | 464pp | January 2020

A rollicking retelling of the story of England's favourite ginger tyrant - King Henry VIII - but with a 21st century twist

Divorced, murdered, died, divorced, suicide, survived...

Wealthy, devilishly handsome businessman Harry Rose is head of Rose Corporation, No.18 on the Forbes rich list and recently married to wife number six. But in 2018, with business in the spot light and his love life under scrutiny, Harry's perfect world has the potential to come crashing to the ground - and Harry is worried man.

As Harry's conscience battles to justify his past actions - from 1980s young gun to present-day ginger tyrant - he begins to realise how the strong, savvy women he's loved and lost have played host to a life story worthy of any tabloid. And that behind the money, sex and glamour lies a truer tale of infidelity, intrigue and lies...

OLIVIA HAYFIELD is a published author and has worked as an editor for over 20 years. Born in the UK, where she lived most of her life, she now lives in New Zealand.

THE GOLDEN RULE by Amanda Craig

Contemporary Fiction | Little, Brown | 352pp | June 2020 | Korea: Duran Kim | Japan: TMA

Amanda Craig's new novel turns on two women who meet by chance and discover that they are both victims of abusive husbands. Together, they plot their revenge.

When Hannah is invited into the First-Class carriage of the London to Penzance train by Jinni, she walks into a spider's web. Now a poor young single mother, Hannah once escaped Cornwall to go to university. But once she married Jake and had his child, her dreams were crushed into bitter disillusion. Her husband has left her for Eve, rich and childless, and Hannah has been surviving by becoming a cleaner in London. Jinni is equally angry and bitter, and in the course of their journey the two women agree to murder each other's husbands. After all, they are strangers on a train - who could possibly connect them? But when Hannah goes to Jinni's husband's home the next night, she finds Stan, a huge, hairy, ugly drunk who has his own problems - not least the care of a half-ruined house and garden. He claims Jinni is a very different person to the one who has persuaded Hannah to commit a terrible crime. Who is telling the truth - and who is the real victim?

Praise for Amanda Craig: She is a humane writer as well a waspish one and it is the plight of London's migrant workers and sink-school pupils with which she is primarily concerned here, and her passion and care are affecting -The Observer on HEARTS AND MINDS; A marvelously readable novel, written with great humour and spark, but also social heart and central relevance to the way we live now.

AMANDA CRAIG is a British novelist, short-story writer and critic. Born in South Africa in 1959, she grew up in Italy, where her parents worked for the UN, and was educated at Bedales School and Clare College, Cambridge. After a brief time in advertising and PR, she became a journalist for newspapers such as The Sunday Times, The Observer, The Daily Telegraph and The Independent, winning both the Young Journalist of the Year and the Catherine Pakenham Award. She was the children's critic for The Independent on Sunday and The Times. She still reviews children's books for The New Statesman, and literary fiction for The Observer, but is mostly a full-time novelist. HEARTS AND MINDS was long-listed for the 2010 Bailey's Prize for Women's Fiction. Option publishers: Italian (Astoria)

RANDOM SHIT FLYING THROUGH THE AIR by Jackson Ford

Fantasy | Orbit | 480pp | June 2020

Teagan Frost's life is finally back on track.

Her role working for the government as a psychokinetic operative is going well. She might also be on course for convincing her crush, Nic Delacourt, to go out with her. And she's even managed to perfect her paella recipe. But Teagan is about to face her biggest threat yet. A young boy with the ability to cause earthquakes has come to Los Angeles - home to the San Andreas, one of the most lethal fault lines in the world. If Teagan can't stop him, the entire city - and the rest of California - will be wiped off the map . . . Option Publishers: German (Verlagsgruppe), US (Orbit)

 LIBERATION by Imogen Kealey

Contemporary Fiction | Sphere | 384pp | April 2020 | Korea: EYA | Japan:

The must-read thriller inspired by the true story of Nancy Wake, the most decorated servicewoman of the Second World War, soon to be a major blockbuster film

To the Allies she was a fearless freedom fighter, special operations super spy, a woman ahead of her time. To the Gestapo she was a ghost, a shadow, the most wanted person in the world with a five-million Franc bounty on her head. Her name was Nancy Wake. Now, for the first time, the roots of her legend are told in a thriller about one woman's incredible quest to save the man she loves, turn the tide of the war, and take brutal revenge on those who have wronged her.

'Imogen Kealey' is a pseudonym for Darby Kealey and Imogen Robertson.

DARBY KEALEY is a writer and producer, based in Los Angeles. His credits include the critically acclaimed series Patriot for Amazon, as well as a number of film and television projects currently in development. THE SLEEPOVER by Samantha King

Contemporary Fiction | Piatkus | 320pp | June 2020

It was meant to be the best night of her son's life. Was it his last?

Izzy is thrilled when her shy, 12-year-old son is invited for his first sleepover. Nick has spent years being isolated and picked on; he deserves a night of fun, friendship and freedom. But Izzy is also nervous: it's a year to the day since bullies put Nick in hospital. She drops him off at his new best friend's house with mixed feelings. Arriving to collect him the following morning, her worst fears come true: Nick isn't there. Who has taken her son? And will she ever get him back?

Praise for Samantha King: Taunt, tense and very clever. Definitely one to watch out for – Claire Douglas, The Sunday Times bestselling author of Last Seen Alive; *An astonishing read! THE CHILDREN'S SECRET by Nina Monroe

Contemporary Fiction | Sphere | 400pp | November 2020

THE CHILDREN'S SECRET is a tense and claustrophobic story about a tight-knit community fracturing, and the eventual healing process after the children's secret is revealed

Eva Day is enjoying the last few days of summer. It's hard to believe only a few months ago she moved to this sleepy New Hampshire town from England with her husband and daughter. The Days are settling into their new community well, although Eva's daughter Lily has been sulking; she's missing home. But Eva has the perfect distraction for her: the Wrights - another family in town - are throwing a birthday party for their son, a great opportunity for Lily to start making new friends. The problem is it's well-known that the Wrights have guns on their farm, and other parents in the town are reluctant to play at the house. In an attempt to bring families together, Eva convinces all the other mothers in her circle - bar one - to attend the party. It's a beautiful day, and adults and children alike having a wonderful time. Until the happy atmosphere is shattered by a gunshot ringing out from the barn where the children are playing.

Praise for Nina Monroe writing as Virginia Macgregor: A future classic – Clare Mackintosh on WHAT MILO SAW; I couldn't put this insightful, compelling novel down – Woman & Home on THE ASTONISHING RETURN OF NORAH WELLS; A touching look at the meaning of motherhood – Good Housekeeping on THE ASTONISHING RETURN OF NORAH WELLS.

NINA MONROE moved recently from England to New Hampshire with her husband and two daughters. THE CHILDREN'S SECRET is her first book writing as Nina Monroe. She has also written four adult and two young adult novels as Virginia Macgregor. Option Publishers: German (Goldmann).

THE PURSUIT OF WILLIAM ABBEY by Claire North

Speculative Fiction | Orbit | 432pp | November 2019 | Korea: EYA | Japan: TMA

A hauntingly powerful new novel from the award-winning Claire North - one of the most original voices in modern fiction

Sudan in the 1880s. A young and naive English doctor by the name of William Abbey witnesses the lynching of a local boy by the white colonists. He's guilt-struck, but too cowardly and stupid to stand up against this act. And as the child dies, his mother curses William. William isn't sure what this curse means but begins to understand when the shadow of the dead boy starts following him across the world. It never stops, never rests. It can cross oceans and mountains. And if it catches him, the person he loves most in the world will die . . .

THE FIRST FIFTEEN LIVES OF HARRY AUGUST was Claire North's first novel. It was one of the fastest-selling new SFF titles of the last ten years. It was nominated for the British Science Fiction Award for Best Novel, the Arthur C Clarke Award, and it won the John W Campbell Memorial Award. Praise: Beautiful and gripping – The Guardian; A superb novel [...] Highly recommended – Irish Independent; The writing is impeccable – Heat.

CLAIRE NORTH is a pseudonym for Catherine Webb, and her fiction has been variously published in over twenty languages. She is a Carnegie Medal-nominated author whose debut novel was written when she was just fourteen years old. She has fast established herself as one of the most powerful and imaginative voices in modern fiction. Option publishers: French (Bragelonne), Polish (Dressler Dublin), Romanian (Editura ART), Russian (AST).

THERE WAS STILL LOVE by Favel Parrett

Contemporary Fiction | Sceptre | 224pp | September 2019

Twins Eva and Mana's lives are irreparably altered when Eva, laughing, barrels into a man on the street on the eve of German occupation in Czechoslovakia. A seemingly harmless moment sets off a chain of events that will separate the sisters for the rest of their lives, raising severed families and watching the future unravel from either side of the Iron Curtain.

The lives of Ludek and Mala Liska – one raised running wild through the streets of Prague, the other in the suburbs of Melbourne – are intertwined from opposite sides of the world.

Ludek's grandmother is haunted by memories of a sister she rarely sees, and a daughter forced to choose between her freedom and her own son. Mala Liska's young life is Czech roots grafted into Australian soil, her family transplanted from their history, a childhood of warm pipe tobacco and homemade cakes.

In 2011, FAVEL PARRETT'S career was launched with her critically acclaimed debut PAST THE SHALLOWS. A heart-breaking novel, it was sold internationally, shortlisted in the prestigious Miles Franklin Award and won the Dobbie Literary Award. Favel herself won the ABIA Newcomer of the Year Award in 2012. Her next novel, WHEN THE NIGHT COMES, was also critically acclaimed and further consolidated Favel's reputation with booksellers and readers.

ASK ME ANYTHING by P.Z. Reizin

Contemporary Fiction | Sphere | 400pp | March 2020 | Korea: EYA | Japan: Uni

From the author of HAPPINESS FOR HUMANS, comes a wry, witty and hilarious look at how we handle technology – and how it handles us

When Daisy buys herself a smart fridge, she has no idea just how smart. At 31 and with a number of serial dating disasters on Tinder, not to mention a tumultuous relationship with divorced estate agent, Dean Whittle, the appliances in Daisy's apartment have had enough of her lifestyle and unhealthy appetite for midnight tubs of ice cream. Between them they work to convince Daisy that she deserves better than Whittle, leaving her messages promoting the idea that she should love and respect herself more. But Daisy is still making bad choices. When they find a perfect match for Daisy, there's lots of excitement across the Internet of Things but surely not everything can be as easy as it seems.

Praise for HAPPINESS FOR HUMANS: A sort of Shakespearean comedy of errors but instead of the gods there are rogue AIs seeking to meddle in the affairs of humans. Great fun – The Bookseller; One of the most unique love stories ever written.

P.Z. REIZIN worked as a journalist and producer in newspapers, radio and television before turning to writing. He has been involved in several Internet startup ventures, none of which went on to trouble Google, Twitter or Facebook. His previous title with Sphere, HAPPINESS FOR HUMANS, is being made into a film. Option publishers: Bulgarian (Gnezdoto); Catalan (Columna), Chinese Complex (Solo Press), Chinese Simplified (TianJin Manyu), Czech (Euromedia), Dutch (Luitingh-Sijthoff), Estonian (Petron Print), Finnish (Gummerus), French (Albin Michel), German (Manhattan), Hebrew (Kinneret), Hungarian (Libri), Icelandic (Bokabeitan), Italian (Rizzoli), Japanese (TAC Publishing), Korean (Book21), Lithuanian (UAB Jotema), Polish (Proszynski), Portuguese in Portugal (Presenca), Portuguese in Brazil (Distribuidora Record), Romanian (Litera), Russian (Eksmo), Serbian (Vulkan), Slovak (Ikar), Spanish (Planeta), Turkish (Penguin), Ukrainian (Family Leisure Club), US (Grand Central).

BACK TO YOU by Tammy Robinson

Contemporary Romance | Piatkus | 224pp | October 2020

What happens when a couple are torn apart just at the moment when they fall in love?

When Finn Young and Zoe Henderson meet, they fall in love hard and fast. But Finn is about to go travelling for a year, fulfilling a promise to his late sister to raise money in support of her illness. It's terrible timing, but Zoe knows their feelings are strong enough to stand the test of time. While Finn is away, however, Zoe loses her leg in a horrific car accident. And now she has to suffer the agony not only of her injury, but of wondering whether Finn will still love her when he comes home. So, she cuts all ties and disappears from Finn's life, without telling him why. And now Finn has to decide how hard he's willing to fight for the girl whose heart he's carried with him, while Zoe has to decide if she's got the strength to find her way back to the girl she once was.

TAMMY ROBINSON lives in New Zealand with her husband, three children and two pets. She has independently published seven novels and is currently working on the next one. THE FREQUENCY OF LOVE by Keith Stuart

Contemporary Fiction | Sphere | 400pp | May 2021 | Korea: KCC | Japan: TMA

New novel from the bestselling author of A BOY MADE OF BLOCKS and DAYS OF WONDER

In Second World War Bath, young, naïve wireless engineer Will meets German refugee Elsa Klein: she is sophisticated, witty and wordly, and at last his life seems to make sense . . . until, soon after, the newly married couple's home is bombed, and Will awakes from the wreckage to find himself alone. Seventy years later, Laura is a social worker battling her way out of depression and off medication. Her new case is a strange: an isolated old man whose house hasn't changed since the war. A man who insists his wife vanished many, many years before. Everyone thinks he's suffering dementia. But Laura begins to suspect otherwise . . .

Praise for DAYS OF WONDER: So powerful, yet incredibly gentle and poignant. Utterly and completely beautiful – Joanna Cannon, author of The Trouble with Goats and Sheep; Utterly enchanting . . . a truly beautiful story – Ruth Hogan, author of The Keeper of Lost Things; A story of life, love and hope - the perfect antidote to today's world. Phenomenal – Clare Mackintosh, author of I LET YOU GO.

KEITH STUART is a journalist and author of two novels, A BOY MADE OF BLOCKS and DAYS OF WONDER. His heart-warming debut novel, A BOY MADE OF BLOCKS, inspired by Stuart's real-life relationship with his autistic son, was a Richard and Judy Book Club pick and sold in twenty-eight territories. Option publishers: Chinese Simplified (TianJin Manyu), Dutch (HarperCollins), German (Goldmann), Hebrew (Matar), Italian (Corbaccio), Lithuanian (UAB Jotema), Portuguese in Brazil (Record), Russian (Azbooka-Atticus).

EVE by Una

Graphic Novel | Virago | 208pp | August 2020 | Fully illustrated, full colour | Korea: KCC | Japan:

EVE is the first full-length graphic novel by acclaimed graphic memoirist Una, beautifully drawn by this award-winning artist and narrated by a mother and daughter

EVE is the story of a mother and daughter struggling to survive in a post-apocalyptic world which has provocative parallels with our current political reality, and explores themes of motherhood, community and survival. In a place which has been turned upside down by 'the event', and which grows more threatening by the day, Eve feels she has no choice but to run away and try to forge a new community – and her mother, who also narrates the story, feels she cannot stop her. But when Eve discovers that she is going to become a mother herself, the dangers she faces only multiply...

Praise for Una: Unflinching, heart-breaking and utterly compelling. Una's story explores how the public silencing of women's voices too often creates a private hell - Emma Jane Unsworth; ...the illustrations are beautiful, and the words are a powerful demand to listen to women's voices – Elle; Brilliant, brave and fiercely intelligent - Kerry Hudson, Herald Scotland Books of the Year

UNA is an artist and writer whose work includes comics, zines, graphic novels, projects and commissions that explore life, fact and fiction through visual means; her website is Unacomics.com. Her graphic memoir Becoming Unbecoming was published by Myriad Editions in the UK in 2015 and has been translated into Spanish, Dutch, Portuguese, French, Italian, and Turkish and a Canada/US edition. Becoming Unbecoming has been featured on BBC Radio 4 Woman's Hour, Open Book, Newsweek, Elle, New York Times, Guardian, El Pais, and was chosen as one of Oprah.com's Best Memoirs of 2016, a Forbidden Planet Books of the Year 2015 and one of Elle's Great Feminist Books of All Time.

THE PRIVATE JOYS OF NNENNA MALONEY

AN ORDINARY WONDER

THE COLOURS by Juliet Bates

Contemporary Fiction | Fleet | 384pp | April 2020

An atmospheric, intense novel of the bond between mother and son, set against the backdrop of the world wars

Ellen sees the world differently from everyone else, but living as she does in a tiny town in the north-east of England, in a world on the cusp of war, no one has time for an orphaned girl who seems a little odd. When she is taken in to the local country house all seems to be going better, despite the musty curtains and an aging spinster completely out of touch with the world. But pregnancy out of wedlock spoils all this, and Ellen is unable to cope. How will Jack, her son, survive – orphaned like his mother was? Can they eventually find their way back to each other?

THE COLOURS is a sweeping novel of how we can lose ourselves, and our loved ones.

JULIET BATES studied art and art history in Bristol, Birmingham and Strasbourg, and has since lectured at graduate and post graduate levels. She moved to France in 2000 to a post as professeur at the Ecole régionale des beaux-arts Caen la mer. She has published a number of short stories in British and Canadian literary journals.

THE QUARRY by Ben Halls

Contemporary Fiction | Dialogue Books | 192pp | February 2020

THE QUARRY is a collection of interconnected short stories set in the fictional working-class west London-based Quarry Lane estate

The characters and settings as themes of ambition, addiction, and social mobility are examined in this state-of-the-nation book. The stories focus on a diverse collection of working-class men and look at masculinity in a world where gender and gender roles are being revolutionised.

This work received a distinction from Kingston University's MFA Creative Writing programme and was overseen by acclaimed author Hanif Kureishi.

BEN HALLS is a London based writer and journalist who has written for VICE Sports and is currently working on a number of projects, including expanding on the world created in THE QUARRY, collaborating on a 'disgustingly British' romantic comedy script, and writing a horror story presented as a piece of faux-journalism.

RAINBOW MILK by Paul Mendez

Contemporary Fiction | Dialogue Books | 320pp | March 2020

A raw, essential coming-of-age narrative from a thrilling new voice in queer/black fiction, for fans of Garth Greenwell, Edouard Louis and Moonlight

RAINBOW MILK is a coming-of-age story told from the point of view of a young black man from a religious background, who identifies several major contradictions between himself, his family life, and his beliefs. Upon rejecting the doctrine, he is shown the need to form a new centre of gravity, and uses his sexuality to explore new notions of love, fatherhood and spirituality.

PAUL MENDEZ is from the Black Country. He now lives in London and is a member of two theatre companies, Scaffold State and Know My Mind. He has also worked as a voice actor, most recently recording Ian Wright's A LIFE IN FOOTBALL for Hachette Audio.

 THE PRIVATE JOYS OF NNENNA MALONEY by Okechukwu Nzelu

Contemporary Fiction | Dialogue | 320pp | October 2019

THE PRIVATE JOYS OF NNENNA MALONEY is a comic novel about Nnenna, a half-Nigerian teenager living in modern-day Manchester with her mother white Joanie

As Nnenna approaches womanhood she starts trying to connect with her Igbo-Nigerian culture. Her once close and tender relationship with her mother becomes strained as she asks probing questions about her father who she's never met and whom her mother who refuses to discuss. Each chapter begins with a biblical quote which harks back to the beginning of Maurice and Joanie's relationship - meeting in a church group in a café in Cambridge - but is really Nnenna's diary headings which she is trying to hide from her mother's prying eyes. Nnenna is asking big questions of how to 'be' when she doesn't know who she is, as Joanie wonders how to truly love when she herself has never been loved.

THIS IS YESTERDAY by Rose Ruane

Contemporary Fiction | Corsair | 256pp | September 2020 | Korea: KCC | Japan:

An evocative and sharply impressive debut exploring a woman's relationship with her art, her body and desires, her memories, and herself.

Alone and adrift in London, Peach is heading into her mid-forties with nothing to show for her youthful promise but a stalled art career and a stopgap job in a Mayfair gallery she's been doing for a decade. She is too smart and independent to believe her unhappiness will be cured by a relationship and a baby, too sad and lonely to break her cycle of drunken hook ups and nervous breakdowns. She is too young to feel this tired, and far too old to feel this lost.

When Peach is woken one night with news that her father, who has Alzheimer's disease, is in intensive care, she can no longer outrun the summer of secrets and sexual awakenings that augured twenty-five years of estrangement from her family. Now, as they all gather in the hospital, past and present collide, forcing Peach to confront the consequences of her actions and inactions throughout the years.

ROSE RUANE was originally a visual artist working in performance, sculpture, drawing and video. She undertook the MLitt in Creative Writing at Glasgow University, and subsequently won the Off West End Adopt a Playwright award in 2015. THIS IS YESTERDAY is her first novel.

 ONE NIGHT, NEW YORK by Lara Thompson

Crime & Mystery | Virago | 320pp | July 2020

The winner of the inaugural Virago/The Pool New Crime Writer Award, as judged by a committee including bestselling novelist Erin Kelly.

This debut novel opens at the top of the Empire State Building in 1932; Frances and Agnes, lovers and co-conspirators, are waiting for a man who has done something terrible to both of them, with a plan to seek the ultimate revenge. Set over the course of a single night, with flashbacks to the weeks leading up to the potential murder, ONE NIGHT, NEW YORK is a detective story, a romance and a coming-of-age tale. It is also a story of old New York, of bohemian Greenwich Village between the wars, of floozies and artists and addicts, of a city that sucked in creatives and immigrants alike, lighting up the world, while all around America burned amidst the heat of the Great Depression.

The Virago/The Pool New Crime Writer Award was set up to find an original and exciting new voice in crime fiction and received over two hundred entries in its first year. Thompson won a publishing contract with Virago as well as two hours of mentoring from Jill Dawson courtesy of Gold Dust mentoring. Val McDermid gave Thompson the award in person at the Bloody Scotland International Crime Writing Festival in Stirling. The judging committee was made up of novelist Erin Kelly, literary agent Jo Unwin, journalist Coco Khan, Scott Free Development Executive Emily Iredale, novelist and co-founder of The Pool Sam Baker and Virago Publisher Sarah Savitt. Lara Thompson teaches film at Middlesex University, and is the author of Film Light: Meaning and Emotion. Born in Cornwall, she now lives in London. ONE NIGHT, NEW YORK is her first novel.

 THE LIGHT WITHIN US by Charlotte Betts

Historical Fiction | Piatkus | 384pp | January 2020

The first title in the Spindrift trilogy: an historical, multi-generational family drama set at the turn of the century

The story is set at Spindrift House overlooking the sea at Port Isaac, Cornwall. The trilogy follows talented painter Edith Fairchild, passionate in love and stalwart in her pursuit of artistic excellence, as she matures from an idealistic bride to the matriarch of the Spindrift community. The stories explore themes of the far-reaching effects of infidelity, together with women's rights and friendships.

In the golden afternoon of the turn of the century, Edith founds Spindrift artists' community in Cornwall with her husband Benedict and their friends Clarissa, Dora and old flame, Pascal. When Benedict abandons Edith, she cannot divorce him if she is to retain her home and children. Dora sacrifices her art to take on an unexpected challenge and Clarissa's reckless actions result in an illegitimate baby fathered by hostile neighbour Hugh Penrose. Hugh exposes weaknesses within the community that threaten to tear apart what the friends had expected to be an idyllic way of life. Pascal supports Edith as she fights successfully to ensure Spindrift's future whilst striving to fulfil her artistic promise. She grows to love Pascal for his calm good sense and is overjoyed when he tells her he loves her, too. They cannot marry but are blissfully happy together painting by the sea.

CHARLOTTE BETTS is the author of a number of previous historical novels. THE APOTHECARY'S DAUGHTER, her debut novel, which won the YouWriteOn Book of the Year in 2010, the Romantic Novelists' Association Joan Hessayon Award for New Writers in 2011, and the RoNA's Historical Category award for 2013. A CORNISH INHERITANCE by Terri Nixon

Historical Fiction | Piatkus | 384pp | December 2019

From the brilliant author of the Penhaligon saga comes a new trilogy, The Fox Family Saga, following family fortunes at a grand hotel on the Cornish Riviera in the 1920s.

Helen Fox is happily married to bon viveur and former playboy Harry. Dubbed “H and H, The Heavenly Twins,” they have three children, a glamorous lifestyle, and are hugely popular among their social set... until tragedy strikes. Helen is forced to give up her Bristol home, and move to the Fox family’s hotel on the Cornish coast, where she discovers her perfect life had been based on a lie.

Now Helen must re-build what she can and begin a new life with the help of a vivacious new friend, Leah Marshall; a godsend as Helen’s children grow up and find their own, often dangerous paths. But when the future of the hotel is threatened, Helen discovers that she has not left her past behind after all, and unless she takes drastic action she’s going to lose everything all over again.

Will Leah prove to be the friend Helen thinks she is?

TERRI NIXON was born in Plymouth in 1965. At the age of 9 she moved with her family to Cornwall, to the village featured in Daphne du Maurier's Jamaica Inn - North Hill - where she discovered a love of writing that has stayed with her ever since. She also discovered apple-scrumping, and how to jump out of a hayloft without breaking any bones, but no-one's ever offered to pay her for doing those.

Her first commercially published novel was Maid of Oaklands Manor, published by Piatkus in 2013. She has since published two more novels in the Oaklands Manor trilogy: A Rose in Flanders Fields and Daughter of Dark River Farm.

 THE FAMILY BUSINESS by Hania Allen

Crime & Thriller | Constable | 352pp | February 2020

The third title in the Polish Detective series featuring DI Dania Gorska

The novel begins with a search in the area north of Dundee. The police and a group of volunteers are combing the landscape looking for a missing boy, suspected to be the latest victim of a child rapist. But what they find in a locked, derelict doocot are the remains of someone else, a boy who has been chained to the wall.

The boy is the youngest son of one Gregor Affleck, a freemason who runs a taxidermy business with his two grown-up sons, Kenny and Ross. As DI Dania Gorska delves deeper into the Affleck's dealings, the true nature of their disturbing business comes to light, and she must race to catch the child rapist before Gregor finds him first.

Praise for Hania Allen: A fresh new find for crime fans – Sunday Post; Nicely nasty in all the right places . . . The story rattles along until bringing the curtain down with an unnerving twist – Craig Robertson; Captivating characters and an intriguing plot. A great new find for crime fans – Lin Anderson; Pitch-perfect . . . a witty, tense crime novel written in a highly readable style – Russel D McLean

HANIA ALLEN was born in Liverpool, but has lived in Scotland longer than anywhere else. She has worked as a researcher, a mathematics teacher, an IT officer and finally in senior management, a post she left to write full time. She is the author of the Von Valenti novels and now lives in a fishing village in Fife.

 A QUIET DEATH IN ITALY by Tom Benjamin

Crime | Constable | 336pp | November 2019

This is the first in a contemporary detective series which presents modern Italy through the eyes of Daniel Leicester, a British detective in Bologna

When the bloated body of a leading anarchist is discovered floating in one of Bologna's hidden canals following a police raid, it seems that most of the city is pointing the finger in the direction of the Questura. But when Daniel Leicester receives a call from the dead man's lover, the English detective follows a trail that begins in the 1970s and leads all the way to the rotten heart of the present-day Bolognese establishment.

A QUIET DEATH IN ITALY introduces us to Daniel's life in Italy, his family and characters such as his friend Luca, irreverent sidekick Dolores, forensics expert Massima, and police bigwig Ispettore Alessandro. It also introduces us to a theme that will run through early novels in the series – the conflict between old and new, and how contemporary Italy is adapting to change.

Book Two will explore the inflammatory immigration problem in a nation where racism is rife.

Inspired by Naples '44, Norman Lewis's memoir of his time as an intelligence officer, Tom Benjamin's new series presents Italy as experienced by an "outsider on the inside". It is crime fiction with a travel writing twist. And Bologna is the second star of the book here – the author lives there and describes the streets and arcades and palazzos and canals with real passion and authority.

TOM BENJAMIN is a former national newspaper and magazine journalist. He went on to spend a couple of years as a spokesperson for Scotland Yard (where he was closely involved in police work and derived some of his inspiration) before moving into international aid and latterly public health. He now works in Bologna, where he has lived for the last ten years.

GRACE IS GONE by Emily Elgar

THE MITFORD SCANDAL by Jessica Fellowes

Historical Mystery | Sphere | 400pp | September 2019 | Korea: EntersKorea | Japan: TMA

The third book in the hit THE MITFORD MURDERS series sees maid Louisa Cannon accompany Diana Mitford in turbulent late 1920s Europe, where everything is on the line . . . even your life

The year is 1928, and after the death of a maid at a glamorous society party, fortune heir Bryan Guinness seizes life and proposes to eighteen-year-old Diana, most beautiful of the six Mitford sisters. The maid's death is ruled an accident, and the newlyweds put it behind them to begin a whirlwind life zipping between London's Mayfair, chic Paris and hedonistic Berlin. Accompanying Diana as her lady's maid is Louisa Cannon, as well as a coterie of friends, family and hangers on, from Nancy Mitford to Evelyn Waugh.

When a second victim is found in Paris in 1931, Louisa begins to see links with the death of the maid two years previously. With the help of her on-off love interest, Metropolitan police detective Guy Sullivan, Louisa convinces the Mitford sisters that a murderer could be within their midst... all while shadows darken across Europe, and within the heart of Diana Mitford herself.

A DEATH ON THE TRANS-SIBERIAN EXPRESS by C J Farrington

Crime & Mystery | Constable | 416pp | March 2021

Olga Pushkin spends her days in a railway worker's hut alongside the tracks of the Trans-Siberian Railway in the small Siberian village of Roslazny, carrying out her duties for the railway company and dreaming of the day when she will have saved enough money to enrol on the literature course at Tomsk State University. The rest of the time, Olga has to look after her supposedly invalid father Mikail and run errands for her ungrateful Aunt Zia, while also keeping an eye out for her friend Anna Kabalevsky and her bullying husband Bogdan, and worrying about her brother Pasha, posted to the Crimea with the army.

But when one morning Olga is knocked unconscious by the body of an American thrown from the Trans-Siberian Express, and the police sergeant – who has only just arrived in the village and is currently living in one of the police cells along with his pet ferret – begins the investigation, Olga insists on helping. However, they soon discover that the case isn't as simple as it may have first seemed . . .

 A DEATH AT THE HOTEL MONDRIAN by Anja de Jager

Crime & Mystery | Constable | 352pp | November 2019

The fifth smart and engaging police procedural featuring dark and damaged Dutch detective Lotte Meerman

When Lotte Meerman is faced with the choice of interviewing the latest victim in a string of assaults, or talking to a man who claims he really isn't dead, she picks the interview. After all, the man cannot possibly be who he claims he is: Andre Nieuwkamp was murdered as a teenager over thirty years ago, and it had been a police success story nationwide when the skeletal remains found in the dunes outside Amsterdam had been identified, and the murderer subsequently arrested.

Yet concerned about this encounter, Lotte goes to the Hotel Mondrian the next day to talk to the man, but what she finds is his corpse. And his passport shows that he wasn't Andre Nieuwkamp as he said, but Theo Brand, a British citizen. Subsequent DNA tests reveal that the man was Andre Nieuwkamp so now Lotte has a double mystery on her hands and needs to figure out not only why Andre waited so long to tell anyone he was still alive, but also who was the teenager murdered in the dunes all those decades ago.

ANJA DE JAGER is a London-based native Dutch speaker who writes in English. She draws inspiration from cases that her father, a retired police detective, worked on in the Netherlands. Anja worked in the City for twenty years but is now a full-time writer. She is currently working on the next Lotte Meerman novel.

 STOLEN: WHEN YOU HAVE NOTHING, YOU'VE NOTHING TO LOSE... by Roberta Kray

Crime & Thriller | Sphere | 416pp | February 2020

The 15th book from bestselling crime author Roberta Kray

Lolly Bruce spent several years in the lap of luxury, but now she's back in a world she knows: London's East End. Her guardian Mal Fury is doing time, so Lolly is working on the wrong side of the law to get by. She'll need to use all her street smarts to keep her safe in Kellston.

Then one day the Old Bill turn up on her doorstep – Mal is on the run. But why when he has only months left to serve? Lolly is convinced the only thing Mal would escape for is news about the daughter he lost nineteen years ago. Nick Trent knows better than to get dragged into the Fury case, but his better judgement doesn't count for much when it comes to Lolly. He agrees to help her track Mal down, and try and solve the mystery of Kay Fury's abduction once and for all.

Through her marriage to Reggie Kray, Roberta Kray has a unique and authentic insight into London's East End. Roberta met Reggie in early 1996 and they married the following year; they were together until Reggie's death in 2000. The stunning second novel by Jhalak Prize-winning novelist Jacob Ross delves deeply into issues of family, class, friendship and loyalty, asking just how far a person should go to protect those they love

On the Caribbean island of Camaho, Michael 'Digger' Digson is in deep trouble. Miss Stanislaus, his friend and fellow CID detective, kills a man who assaulted her as a child. As the only witness, Digger knows it was self-defence, but their superiors believe it was murder, and he's given just six weeks to prove otherwise...six weeks in which Digger catches a shocking roadside murder and the Justice Minister attempts to break up the unit, and with it both the pair and their unconventional boss, DS Chilman.

As Digger and Miss Stanislaus delve further into the tangled mesh of murders on the island, they discover a thread of crime, cruelty and corruption that suggests a storm is due to break over Camaho at any moment.

Praise for THE BONE READERS: THE BONE READERS is a page-turner, but its insights and language are equally testament to a literary novel of impressive depth and acuity – The Guardian; A breathtaking, thought-provoking, and yes, brilliant read. I know this is a book I shall go back to again and again – Sunny Singh; By turns thrilling, visceral and meditative, and always cinematic – Musa Okwonga.

JACOB ROSS was born in Grenada and now lives in Britain. A fellow of the Royal Society of Literature, he is the author of two acclaimed collections of short stories, A Way to Catch the Dust and Song for Simone, and Tell No One About This - nominated by The 2018 Bocas Literary Festival as one of the three best works of Caribbean fiction published in 2017. His first novel, Pynter Bender, was shortlisted for the Commonwealth Writers Regional Prize, and his debut crime novel, THE BONE READERS won the inaugural Jhalak Prize.

* MAKING WOLF by Tade Thompson

Crime & Thriller | Constable | 304pp | May 2020

MAKING WOLF is the outrageous, frightening, violent and sometimes surreal homecoming experience of a lifetime

Meet Weston Kogi, a London supermarket store detective. He returns home to his West African home country for his aunt's funeral. He sees his family, his ex-girlfriend Nana, his old school mate Church. Food is good, beer is plentiful, and telling people he works as a homicide detective seems like harmless hyperbole, until he wakes up in hell.

He is kidnapped and forced by two separate rebel factions to investigate the murder of a local hero, Papa Busi. The solution may tip a country on the brink into civil war.

Praise for Tade Thompson: A magnificent tour de force – Adrian Tchaikovsky; Smart. Gripping. Fabulous! – Ann Leckie; Mesmerising – M.R. Carey.

TADE THOMPSON is the author of the ROSEWATER Trilogy, the first book of which was a John W. Campbell Award finalist and winner of the 2017 NOMMO Award for Best Novel. His novella The Murders of Molly Southbourne has recently been optioned for screen adaptation. He also writes short stories, notably The Apologists which was nominated for a British Science Fiction Association Award. Born in London to Yoruba parents, he lives and works on the south coast of England where he battles an addiction to books. Option Publishers: French (J'ai Lu), German (Golkonda), Russian (AST), Spanish (Alianza), Turkish (Eksik).

* SOMEONE ELSE'S HOUSE by Jessica Vallance

Psychological Thriller | Sphere | 336pp | November 2019 | Korea: Danny Hong | Japan:

We all want to live like a local. Stay in a 'home away from home'. But if it's someone else's house, then you're not the only one with the key...

Lauren has finally dumped her dead-weight boyfriend, and what better way to celebrate a break-up than by going on holiday with your best friend? Except the holiday isn't turning out as planned – their cosy twosome has become a three and while Barcelona might be heaven, their rented apartment is anything but. It's small, shabby but, more than that, Lauren can't help but feel . . . hunted. As the strange incidents escalate, Lauren and her friends decide to make their escape. But it's when they leave that the real danger begins . . .

JESSICA VALLANCE grew up in Bournemouth and studied law at Sussex University. She has previously worked as a scriptwriter and writes educational articles on a freelance basis. * FRIENDS DON'T LIE by Cath Weeks

Contemporary Fiction | Piatkus | 336pp | October 2019

How far will the ties that bind us stretch, before they finally break?

Everyone knows Melissa Silk and her two best friends in their small Dorset town: a walking poster for friendship and community, people might hate them if they weren't so infectiously likeable. When tragedy strikes and one of the three women, Jenny, is found dead, Melissa can't move on.

Although her friends and family urge her to let it go before her obsession and paranoia pulls them all apart, she just can't - she knows, in her heart, that something isn't right...

and she owes it to Jenny to find out what it is. But what if learning the truth means losing everything she cherishes?

CATH WEEKS' debut novel, BLIND, was published in 2017 and was followed by MOTHERS and THE WIFE'S SHADOW. She was named as an Author to Watch by Elle magazine.

THE MIMOSA TREE by Ovidia Yu

Crime & Mystery | Constable | 352pp | June 2020

Mirza, a secretive neighbour of the Chens in Japanese Occupied Singapore, is a known collaborator and blackmailer. So, when he is murdered in his garden, clutching a branch of mimosa, the suspects include local acquaintances, Japanese officials -- and his own daughters. Su Lin's Uncle Chen is among those rounded up by the Japanese as reprisal. Hideki Tagawa, a former spy expelled by police officer Le Froy and a power in the new regime, offers Su Lin her uncle's life in exchange for using her fluency in languages and knowledge of locals to find the real killer. Su Lin soon discovers Hideki has an ulterior motive. Friends, enemies and even the victim are not what they seem. There is more at stake here than one man's life. Su Lin must find out who killed Mirza and why, before Le Froy and other former colleagues detained or working with the resistance suffer the consequences of Mirza's last secret.

Praise for the Ovidia Yu: Chen Su Lin is a true gem. Her slyly witty voice and her admirable, sometimes heartbreaking, practicality make her the most beguiling narrator heroine I've met in a long while – Catriona McPherson; Charming and fascinating with great authentic feel...This book is exactly why I love historical novels – Rhys Bowen; A wonderful detective novel . . . a book that introduces one of the most likeable heroines in modern literature and should be on everyone's Must Read list – Scotsman.

OVIDIA YU is one of Singapore's best-known and most acclaimed writers. She has had over thirty plays produced and is the author of a number of comic mysteries published in Singapore, India, Japan and America. THE ROSEWATER REDEMPTION

THE LAST SMILE IN SUNDER CITY by Luke Arnold

Contemporary Fantasy | Orbit | 352pp | February 2020

A wonderfully original fantasy and film noir debut

Fetch Phillips fought on the wrong side of a war between humans and magical creatures, and his actions helped to drain the world of enchantment. Now he works on the streets of Sunder City, taking what odd jobs he can while trying to help those whose lives he ruined. His first case is to find a missing teacher. Professor Rye is a four-hundred-year-old vampire with a heart of gold in a husk of a body. In a world without magic, most vamps have already crumbled into dust, but Fetch is happy to go looking for some dirt with pointed teeth if it gets him his drinking money. Then, when a young siren disappears, Fetch finds out that this dark world still hides some monsters - and he'd better clean up his act before they come into the light.

LUKE ARNOLD played Long John Silver in the Emmy-winning Black Sails, and Michael Hutchence in the INXS mini-series Never Tear Us Apart. Recently he has moved into directing his own films, beginning with the upcoming short film Gutterpunks.

THE CULTURE: NOTES AND DRAWINGS by Iain M. Banks and Ken MacLeod

Sci-Fi | Orbit | 304pp | February 2020

An essential book for all Iain M. Banks fans, celebrating his Culture universe and featuring original drawings by Banks himself, with additional notes and material by Ken MacLeod

Iain M. Banks, the modern master of Sci-Fi, created many original drawings detailing the universe of his bestselling CULTURE novels. Now these illustrations - many of them annotated - are being published for the very first time in a book that celebrates Banks's grand vision, with additional notes and material by Banks's longtime friend and fellow Sci-Fi author Ken MacLeod. It is an essential addition to the collection of any Iain M. Banks fan.

Praise for the CULTURE series: Epic in scope, ambitious in its ideas and absorbing in its execution - Independent on Sunday; Banks has created one of the most enduring and endearing visions of the future - The Guardian; Jam-packed with extraordinary invention - Scotsman; Compulsive reading - The Sunday Telegraph.

IAIN BANKS came to widespread and controversial public notice with the publication of his first novel, THE WASP FACTORY, in 1984. He has since gained enormous popular and critical acclaim for both his mainstream and his science fiction novels.

KEN MACLEOD is the author of twelve previous novels, five of which have been nominated for the Arthur C. Clarke Award, and two which have won the BSFA Award.

MAKER'S CURSE: Book Four of MILLENNIUM'S RULE series by Trudi Canavan

Fantasy | Orbit | 560pp | May 2020

The final instalment of THE MILLENNIUM'S RULE series

Rielle the Maker, restorer of worlds. That is how she is known now. She has lost count of the number of worlds Baluka has sent her to save. But when he sends her to a world that isn't magically dead, she is caught up in far more complex troubles than she has time to sort out. Because her next visit to her own world, to check on Qall, is fast drawing close. After five cycles in exile, is he ready to return to the worlds?

Tyen has cast off his old identity. No longer a spy, his attempts to teach new sorcerers and find ways to counteract the war-machines have been thwarted by interference from Liftre. Then when the chance comes to amend past wrongs it also brings a possible solution to his troubles. Until an old enemy brings news of something worse than dead worlds and sorcerers, and not even the most powerful sorcerers can stop it.

Praise for MILLENNIUM'S RULE series: Canavan brings the two very different worlds to vivid life, writes believable characters caught in dilemmas and leads the story to a satisfying climax while leaving room for future development – The Guardian; The world-building is tremendous. The magical system is sophisticated and fascinating – Striking Keys; Rielle's story entrances . . . leaving readers eager for the next two volumes – Publisher's Weekly.

TRUDI CANAVAN'S books have sold over two million copies in the UK. She published her first story in 1999 and it received an Aurealis Award for Best Fantasy Short Story. Her debut series, the BLACK MAGICIAN trilogy, made her an international success, and all three volumes of her AGE OF THE FIVE trilogy were Sunday Times bestsellers. Option publishers: Spanish (Penguin Random House)

BLOODWORM BOOK 1 by John Gwynne

Fantasy | Orbit | 528pp | February 2021

This new series – currently titled 'Bloodsworn' – marks a departure from John's previous books and is set in a brand-new fantasy world, strongly influenced by Norse myths and sagas. It is a fractured, war-torn land of feuding kingdoms and vicious rivalries, where the gods are dead, but their bones and relics hold great power for those brave – or desperate – enough to seek them out. Mercenary bands compete for the best spoils, but power often carries a deadly price . . .

JOHN GWYNNE is the author of the Faithful and the Fallen series, the Of Blood and Bone trilogy, and the upcoming Bloodsworn series – to be published by Orbit in Spring 2021. He lives with his wife, four children and three dogs in East Sussex. When not writing, he works with his wife rejuvenating vintage furniture.

 THE SHADOW SAINT by Gareth Hanrahan

Fantasy | Orbit | 592pp | December 2019

Set in a world of dark gods and dangerous magic, THE SHADOW SAINT is the gripping, darkly inventive sequel to Gareth Hanrahan's acclaimed debut THE GUTTER PRAYER

With his acclaimed debut THE GUTTER PRAYER, Gareth Hanrahan introduced a world of sorcerers and thieves, broken gods and dangerous magic. Now this epic tale continues in THE SHADOW SAINT, the gripping second novel in the BLACK IRON LEGACY.

As the Godswar draws ever closer and tensions within the city escalate, how long will the people of Guerdon be able to keep their enemies at bay?

Praise for THE GUTTER PRAYER: A ground breaking and extraordinary novel . . . Hanrahan has an astonishing imagination – Peter McLean, author of Priest of Bones; A gripping tale that meshes beautifully with its fascinating, darkly inventive setting – James Islington, author of THE SHADOW OF WHAT WAS LOST; Beautifully written. Gripping. Guerdon is the city of my dreams – Anna Smith Spark, author of The Court of Broken Knives.

GARETH HANRAHAN'S three-month break from computer programming to concentrate on writing has now lasted fifteen years and counting. He's written more gaming books than he can readily recall, by virtue of the alchemical transmutation of tea and guilt into words. He lives in Ireland with his wife and twin sons.  DOMINION: Book Three in the ETERNITY WAR series by Jamie Sawyer

Sci-Fi | Orbit | 624pp | November 2019

Following PARIAH and EXODUS comes DOMINION, the third and final book in the ETERNITY WAR series - an explosive tale of elite marines, deep-space exploration and warring galactic empires

The Krell War has begun. The Black Spiral terrorist organisation, and their mysterious leader Warlord, have unleashed a deadly virus across the Maelstrom. There is nothing that can stop the alien fleets as they invade Alliance space. Except for maybe Lieutenant Jenkins and her Jackals. They have been given a secret assignment: to investigate the Aeon - a potential ally in the escalating conflict, and a force that might shift the gears of war in favour of the Alliance.

But there are many agencies interested in the Aeon, and too many sides in this war. Jenkins is going to have to trust her squad, the alien Pariah, and her instincts as she makes the call that will make - or break - this war once and for all.

Praise for Jamie Sawyer: A new master of science fiction – William C. Dietz, author of the Halo tie-in novels; Jamie Sawyer is easily one of the best military SF writers working today - a must read for anyone who grew up watching Aliens and reading 2000AD – Gavin Smith, author of The Bastard Legion

 LEGACY OF ASH: Book One of the LEGACY trilogy by Matthew Ward

Fantasy | Orbit | 784pp | November 2019

Packed full of desperate battles, feuding families and shadowy intrigue, LEGACY OF ASH by British debut author Matthew Ward is epic in every sense - an unmissable fantasy debut for 2019

A shadow has fallen over the Tressian Republic. While the armies of the Hadari Empire invade the borderlands, the Republic's noble families plot against each other, divided by personal ambition. But as Tressia falls, heroes rise.

Viktor Akadra is the Republic's champion and conqueror of the rebellious south. A warrior without equal, he also hides a secret that would see him burned as a heretic. Josiri Trelan would gladly see Viktor condemned to the flames - vengeance for a rebellion crushed and a mother slain. While Josiri plots fresh insurrection, his sister Calenne is determined to escape their tarnished legacy and break the shackles of the past.

As dark days beckon, these three must overcome their differences to save the Republic. Yet decades of bad blood are not easily set aside. Victory - if it comes at all - will command a higher price than they could have imagined.

MATTHEW WARD has frequently been accused of living in worlds of his own imagination, though really he lives in Derby with his extremely patient wife and several attention-seeking cats.
