WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE “DIFFERENT”?

Mind map your ideas below.

DIFFERENT

Stretch your learning: Look at the ideas you have generated. Can you group any of them together?

FACT FILE

Create a fact-file for the person who inspires you the most.
You need to include:

A picture
Their birth and death date
Where they are from
Summarise their early life
How were they different?
What has their impact been on the world?
What lessons can we learn from them?

CREATE YOUR OWN KID WHO DARES TO BE DIFFERENT

A large, empty rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for writing the story of the character.

What is your kid's name?

In what way are they 'different'?

What do they want to change?

How do they use their power of being different to create this change?

What impact does this have on the world?

TELL THE STORY OF YOUR KID WHO DARES TO BE DIFFERENT!

Create a comic strip, telling the story of your kid. What are their origins? How are they different? How will they create a change?

A comic strip template consisting of nine panels arranged in three rows. The top row has three panels of equal width. The middle row has two panels of equal width, with a double-line arrow pointing from the left panel to the right panel. The bottom row has three panels of equal width, identical in layout to the top row.

WRITE TO YOUR FAVOURITE PERSON WHO HAS DARED TO BE DIFFERENT

Write a letter to the person who inspires or interests you the most. Tell them why their story stood out to you. What questions do you have for them? Let them know how they have inspired you, and how you dare to be different as a result of the example they have set.
