

Midnight Sun Virtual Party Kit

A guide to hosting an epic event in celebration of
Midnight Sun

Midnight Sun Party kit

Celebrate 15 years of twilight and the new novel Midnight Sun by throwing the ultimate party. Whether you're calling your coven together or gathering vampires virtually, this kit contains recipes, activity sheets, quizzes and more ideas for a party that will live on (at least in memory) forever.

IMMORTAL INVITES

The Cullens are no strangers to social-distancing and while our favourite 108-year-old vampire may not know how to host a virtual party, Alice Cullen certainly would. If you're hosting your party virtually, make sure to send a link to your friends a few days in advance confirming time, date and dress code.

POMEGRANATES AND PETALS

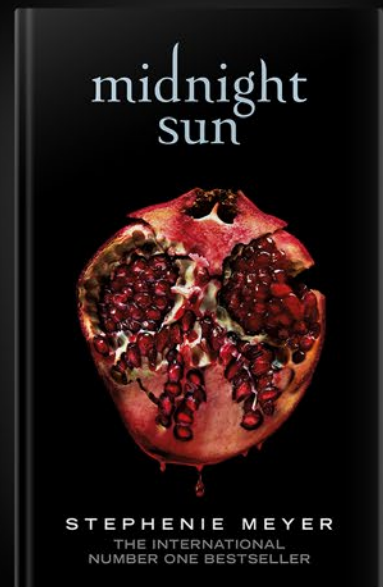

Set the scene with themed décor. Pomegranates and apples are a must (and provide a snack if you get hungry!). Perhaps some lush greens, calling to mind the landscape of the Pacific Northwest. Gather tulips, similar to the New Moon book cover or recreate Bella's birthday with pink rose petals and battery-operated candles.

Alternatively, download one of our custom Zoom backgrounds.

DRESS CODE

Channel Alice and set a party dress code. "No one dressed by me ever looks like an idiot."

How about Wear Your Best Plaid Shirt, Prom Attire (leg cast optional) or Pea Coats For All.

COVEN KITCHEN

Anyone in the mood for venison? While vampires are famed for their appetites, your tastes might differ.

A mushroom ravioli, reminiscent of Bella and Edward's first date would be great for a Midnight Sun dinner party or virtual cookalong. No party is complete without a few snacks, and some Twilight inspired recipes are sure to please a crowd. Follow our recipe for a MIDNIGHT SUN-DAE or try one of these delicious treats:

midnight sundae

Serves about 2 generous or 3 moderate servings

Chocolate Pomegranate Bark

What You Need:

- 4 oz of (at least) 65% dark chocolate
- ¼ cups of pomegranate arils
- Cookie sheet or large plate
- Wax or parchment paper
- Butter knife or offset spatula
- Paper towels or napkins
- Microwave safe bowl

Directions:

Using a paper towel or napkin, pat dry pomegranate arils as much as possible. Note: the arils might not stick to the chocolate if there is too much moisture. Break chocolate into smaller pieces and place in a microwave safe bowl. Heat chocolate in the microwave until melted, stirring every 20-30 seconds. Cover your cookie sheet or large plate with a piece of parchment or wax paper. Using a butter knife (or offset spatula if you are fancy), spread chocolate at least as thick as a coin. Keep in mind that the thicker the chocolate, the more time it needs to cool. Sprinkle the pomegranate arils onto chocolate and refrigerate bark for at least 30 minutes or until chocolate is set. Chocolate will appear matte when it is set. As the chocolate cools, let's make the caramel!

Pomegranate Salted Caramel

What You Need:

- ½ cup of white granulated sugar
- 3/16 cups of pomegranate juice
- 1/16 cup of water
- 4 tablespoons of water or milk
- 1/2 tablespoon of butter
- 1/2 tablespoon of kosher or flaky sea salt
- 1 tablespoon of lemon or lime juice (optional)
- Wooden spoon or heat proof spatula
- Small sauce pan
- Heat proof glass bowl

Directions:

In a small sauce pan, combine the sugar, pomegranate juice, 1/16 cup water and lime or lemon juice. Turn stove on medium heat and stir mixture with a wooden spoon (or heat proof spatula) and stop immediately after sugar has completely dissolved. Once large bubbles begin to form, check for any sugar crystals on the surface of the caramel. Stir crystals in the caramel if you see any. Once the caramel becomes the consistency of maple syrup (around 8-10 min), turn off the heat and add butter. Add 4 tablespoons of water or milk to stop the cooking process. Be careful as caramel is hot and may splatter. Quickly stir in the salt. Pour caramel in a heat proof glass bowl. Allow caramel to cool to room temperature. Note: If caramel cools too much, it may not be pourable. If it is too thick to pour, microwave for roughly 10-15 seconds.

Assembly

What You Need:

- 1 Pint of Your Favorite Vanilla Ice Cream
- Prepared Chocolate Pomegranate Bark
- Prepared Pomegranate Caramel
- Serving bowl

Directions:

Once caramel is cool, take your chocolate out of the refrigerator. Lift the parchment or wax paper and slightly fold chocolate onto itself to create the desired size of chocolate bark. Scoop 2-3 (or more) of your favorite vanilla ice cream into your bowl. Place a couple shards of chocolate pomegranate bark in between scoops of ice cream. Pour caramel all over. Enjoy!
