The tarot can be read three ways – using tarot, numerology or astrology – or all three for a layered meaning. Nº3 The Empress

Planet: ♀ Venus
Star Sign: ♉ Taurus and Libra
Element: ♁ Earth and Air
Month: May and October
Modality: Fixed and Cardinal
Number: 3

The Empress represents love, fertility, creativity, nature, protection and legacy. You are creating something from a place of great love, from a desire to leave something lasting behind you. This card can signal pregnancy, nesting, new pets, new creative projects or a home improvement or a move that brings great joy and peace. Consider who and what you love most in your life and whether you are investing the ideal amount of time, energy and resources there. Love is all. As life enters its twilight phase, what most people dwell on are the happy memories, the people they've loved, the places they hit at home. Do you already know what these are? If so, put them first, make your world revolve around them, gravitate to what makes you happy and peaceful.

Archetypal significance: Venus is the planet of love, pleasure, money and indulgence – all very Empress aspects. Venus makes everything in life more beautiful, charming, pleasing and delightful. Venus is the Instagram filter of the planet! When you're in the company of The Empress you need to slow for the lowliest aspects of your life – or the potential for them – and focus on them. Go where your heart leads.

Number significance: The number 3 represents creativity, influences, communication and trend-setters. You are setting an example. You are building a life others envy and you want to showcase your joy. Feel proud of your life.

THE MAJOR ARCANA 32

The Twelve Houses

When you were born, the planets were all positioned, during their orbits, in specific signs of the zodiac and astrological houses. The 12 houses are like a pizza-dice-style map of the sky (the 12 houses flow counterclockwise in a 360-degree circle, divided into 12 segments) and provide a snapshot of where in the sky the planets were when you were born. A birth chart records this information and blends the meaning of each planet, the house it's in and the sign it's in, to predict your character and destiny.

When planets sit in any of the 12 houses' segments, they energize that house with their traits. If your birth chart was like a movie, then astrologues would describe the houses like the different sets or stages where the planets (the actors) play out their roles (given by the zodiac signs). This can get complicated.

Tarot can use the principle to plot the energies in each of your 12 houses at any given time. This is a great overview of your life reading, perfect for a birthday, or at the start of a new year – or even the astrological New Year (it begins with Aries in March).

The Twelve Houses Spread
 Shuffle the deck. Then, draw and lay out 12 cards face down in a circle like a clock but starting with the 8 o'clock position as is the diagram opposite, so that card 1 represents the first house and so on. Continue counterclockwise, following the wheel.

Turn over card 1 and ask yourself the suggested question overleaf. Then look up the card's meaning. You will likely have an immediate insight if it is trying to tell you something specific but, if not, see the meaning as the prevailing influence of this time.

Continue to turn over each card and ask yourself the corresponding question overleaf, looking to each meaning in turn until you have worked your way through them all.

MARIGOLD

Calendula officinalis

Marigolds are used to communicate with the dead, and they serve as an offering and a guide. Like sunflowers, marigolds turn their heads to follow the sun, and it feels as though their bright crowns light a path for our ancestors to follow. They are also particularly useful for dream magic, helping to boost intuition and psychic abilities and providing a gentle, soothing rest. Just before going to sleep, prepare a marigold spell bath. You can use fresh or dried flowers or a combination of the two. Light a few candles and close your eyes, allowing your body to relax and be permeated by the energy of the blossoms. When you're ready, climb out, but don't rinse off. Pat yourself dry, then get into bed. Inhale the herbal, verdant scent of the marigolds on your skin, and ask them to invite your ancestors into your dreams.
