

Worksheet 4: Me at my best

The memory I want to use for when I am compassionate is:

What did I pay attention to while I was being compassionate?

What did I feel in my body and what was I motivated to do while I was being compassionate?

What body posture and facial expression did I have?

What was my tone of voice?

What would life be like if I could be this version of myself more often?